

The Patriot Quartet is a group of dedicated and "called" men who truly love to sing the Gospel wherever they can. Started in 1996, God has led these men together with a common goal of singing pure, Southern Gospel music that features four-part male vocals.

Concerts feature many older songs and newly written songs by group members. The Quartet is getting rave reviews everywhere they sing. Whether in a church or in a concert setting, the main objective is to tell people about the "Amazing Grace" of Jesus Christ.

God has blessed this group in many ways. With the purchase of a touring coach and a brand new recording with the Eddie Crook Company in Nashville, the future is looking very bright.

Opportunities for ministry are opening up for the quartet at a rapid pace. Their first radio release is being played across the country and on internet radio. A dream is coming true that they never thought possible. With all that is taking place above everything else, the group's main desire is to bring glory to God and to lift up the name that is above every name, Jesus.
