

The Southern Brothers Bio

Honest as the sunrise, unapologetic as the rain, sincere as crickets singing in the wheat fields, you get a glimpse of life as simple as nature itself when you listen to the Southern Brothers.

Some people are born with a destiny and a calling. In the first chapter of Jeremiah, God tells the prophet, "I knew you before you were born...I sanctified you and appointed you as my spokesman to the world." The Southern Brothers are an exciting young trio dedicated to spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ through song. Scott, Tim and Todd Mills, better known collectively as the Southern Brothers, have all grown up surrounded by music, knowing from the beginning that it was a gift from God.

With a calm self-assurance that's characteristic of the Southern Brothers, each member holds visions and dreams for the future that are remarkably of one mind. Their harmonies will melt you, their spirits will make you smile and their music will move you.

The most meaningful ministry takes place offstage, just listening and talking to people. This group of guys wants to be uplifting on a spiritual level, but also really connect in a real-life, everyday sort of way. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; because the Lord has appointed me to preach good tidings to the meek; he has sent me to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound" Isaiah 61:1.

Scott is the lead singer for the group and an accomplished songwriter. His songs are included on all of the Southern Brothers projects. His best known song is "Jesus" which went to #9 on the Singing News Charts and 22 for the year. While Scott loves to sing, he is also an outdoorsman. He enjoys bow hunting for deer, turkey hunting and fishing.

Tim is a full time college student at Southeast Missouri State University working towards a degree in psychology. His long-term goal is to become a psychologist. In his spare time, he enjoys reading and skiing to name a few things.

Todd is the baritone singer for the group. Offstage, he is a cowboy through and through. Todd competes in various roping events. While he is "off-duty", you can find him on a horse honing his skills as a team roper or as an individual.
